

Coaches Library – Basketball Legends

More Than A Game – Phil Jackson (Chicago Bulls & LA Lakers)

- Jackson and his friend/co-author Charley Rosen take you from the inner city courts to the polished hardwood of the country's finest NBA Arenas.
- The most celebrated coach in basketball today relates his philosophy of coaching, talks about the memorable players and plays of the past and candidly expresses his feelings about today's rules and referees
- "This book reminds us that basketball is much more than just a game."

Let Me Tell You A Story - Red Auerbach (Boston Celtics)

- Whenever Basketball Hall of Fame Coach "Red" Auerbach starts a sentence with six words "did I ever tell you about..." anyone within earshot should prepare to hear a marvellous story.
- A winner of nine NBA Championships, eight of them consecutive, Auerbach talks about all things basketball from Bill Russel to Larry Bird and Wilt Chamberlain to Magic Johnson and Michael Jordan.
- Auerbach's unique experiences and Feinstein's skills as a storyteller combine to produce one of the most richly entertaining books ever written about basketball.
