

NATIONAL VOLUNTEERING FORUM

Scottish Gymnastics, like most UK sports, rely heavily on volunteer helpers to organise and run competitions and events. At present there are a number of talented and dedicated individuals who give freely of their time to help our championships and festivals operate as they should. In order to recognise and reward the commitment made by our volunteers, Scottish Gymnastics are establishing a National Volunteering Forum which will create opportunities for individuals to develop their existing skills and allow them to benefit from training programmes.

The first stage in realising the National Volunteering Forum will be to establish a committee who will use their experience to set the stage and plan how the Forum should develop. Scottish Gymnastics would like to extend an open invitation to all members and non-members who feel they can contribute to the committee or as a volunteer. Experience of gymnastics events is not necessary for a potential volunteer as the overall aims of the Forum are both recruitment and development. Any expenses and costs of training incurred as part of the Forum will be paid for by Scottish Gymnastics.

Scottish Gymnastics looks forward to fully engaging with our volunteers in the coming years and to increasing the opportunities our developing sport allows to gymnasts and non-gymnasts alike.

If you are interested in joining the committee and driving forward the SGA Volunteering programme please complete the application form. We plan to hold our first committee meeting to set out our priorities and goals on Saturday 21st March at 2pm which will be held in the Scottish Gymnastics offices.
